IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our beloved friend and classmate,
Paul White, we do affectionately dedicate this page of our annual.

THE DEDICATION OF THE 1953 JAGUAR

To Mr. Jack Schrader, our coach and wonderful friend, we wish to dedicate the 1953 edition of the JAGUAR. Mr. Schrader has labored faithfully and tirelessly to make our school-life more enjoyable. It was indeed a privilege to be able to play for a man who took such a vital interest in each of us. His teachings and coaching have made an everlasting impression upon our lives.

SCHOOL BOARD

On behalf of the faculty and the student body, we take this means of saying THANK YOU to the Board of Education for its part in helping to make the school year of 1952-53 one of the most successful and happiest of Hubbard Public Schools.

TWENTY YEARS FROM NOW

One day, while SCOTTY MADDUX was sitting in the office of his private bank counting his money he fell asleep and began dreaming. A fairy with a dollar bill in her hand walked into the room. She handed him a crystal ball and told him if he would tell her everything he saw, she would give him the money. SCOTTY, without a moment of hesitation, began to tell her what he saw.

First, he saw Sondra Brown (nee Holmes) plowing on the W.D. BROWN, JR. estate. He looked further and saw that W.D. was at home tending the fourteen children and putting to use the bookkeeping he learned under Mrs. Sims in H.H.S.

Next, was an office building and on one of the doors he noticed a sign--GARY BOWMAN THE GREAT, How to become popular with all the girls in two weeks.

JANELLE SLEDGE, a big basketball star while in high school, was coaching the girls' basketball team in old HHS.

He next saw ROBERT SCOTT still sitting in White-Wood Variety Store eating straws, shredding napkins, and hoping no one will offer him a job.

Then, JERRY SELBY, a former Hubbard Football Star, was sitting on the Dawson side lines cheering for his son who is on the Bulldog Team.

BARBARA KABNICK, after becoming a dancing teacher, now has opened an Arthur Murray school of her own in Hubbard for all Hep-Cats still in HHS.

CARROLL KILLOUGH, having decided to be an old bachelor, was selling his self-designed atomic tractors.

He found that our old friend, JESSE KING, was very happy as he had been All-American End at Baylor and had a coaching career.

JIMMY MILLER, having always had a love for cows and Kay, had taken over the Motley milk route. He drove the jeep while Kay carried the milk to the houses.

He saw that LA VERNE PASLAY, after getting disgusted with the telephone operators for giving her the wrong number so many times, had moved to Malone.

NICKIE ARNOLD, after three years of hard work, had finished his autobiography, THE GREATEST MAN ON EARTH, and was now trying to sell it.

Scotty was shocked to learn that LARRY LAND, who learned a lesson from his high school romances, was teaching a special class in HHS - Facts About Love.

GERALD GREENHILL, being very proud of the black eye he recieved during Golden Gloves, had his own solution for painting his eye. He was salesman for this product.

Scotty saw that our H.H.S. wit, ARNOLD TAYLOR, after having collected so many pocketsize novels while in high school, was chief owner of a second hand pocket-book store in Hubbard.

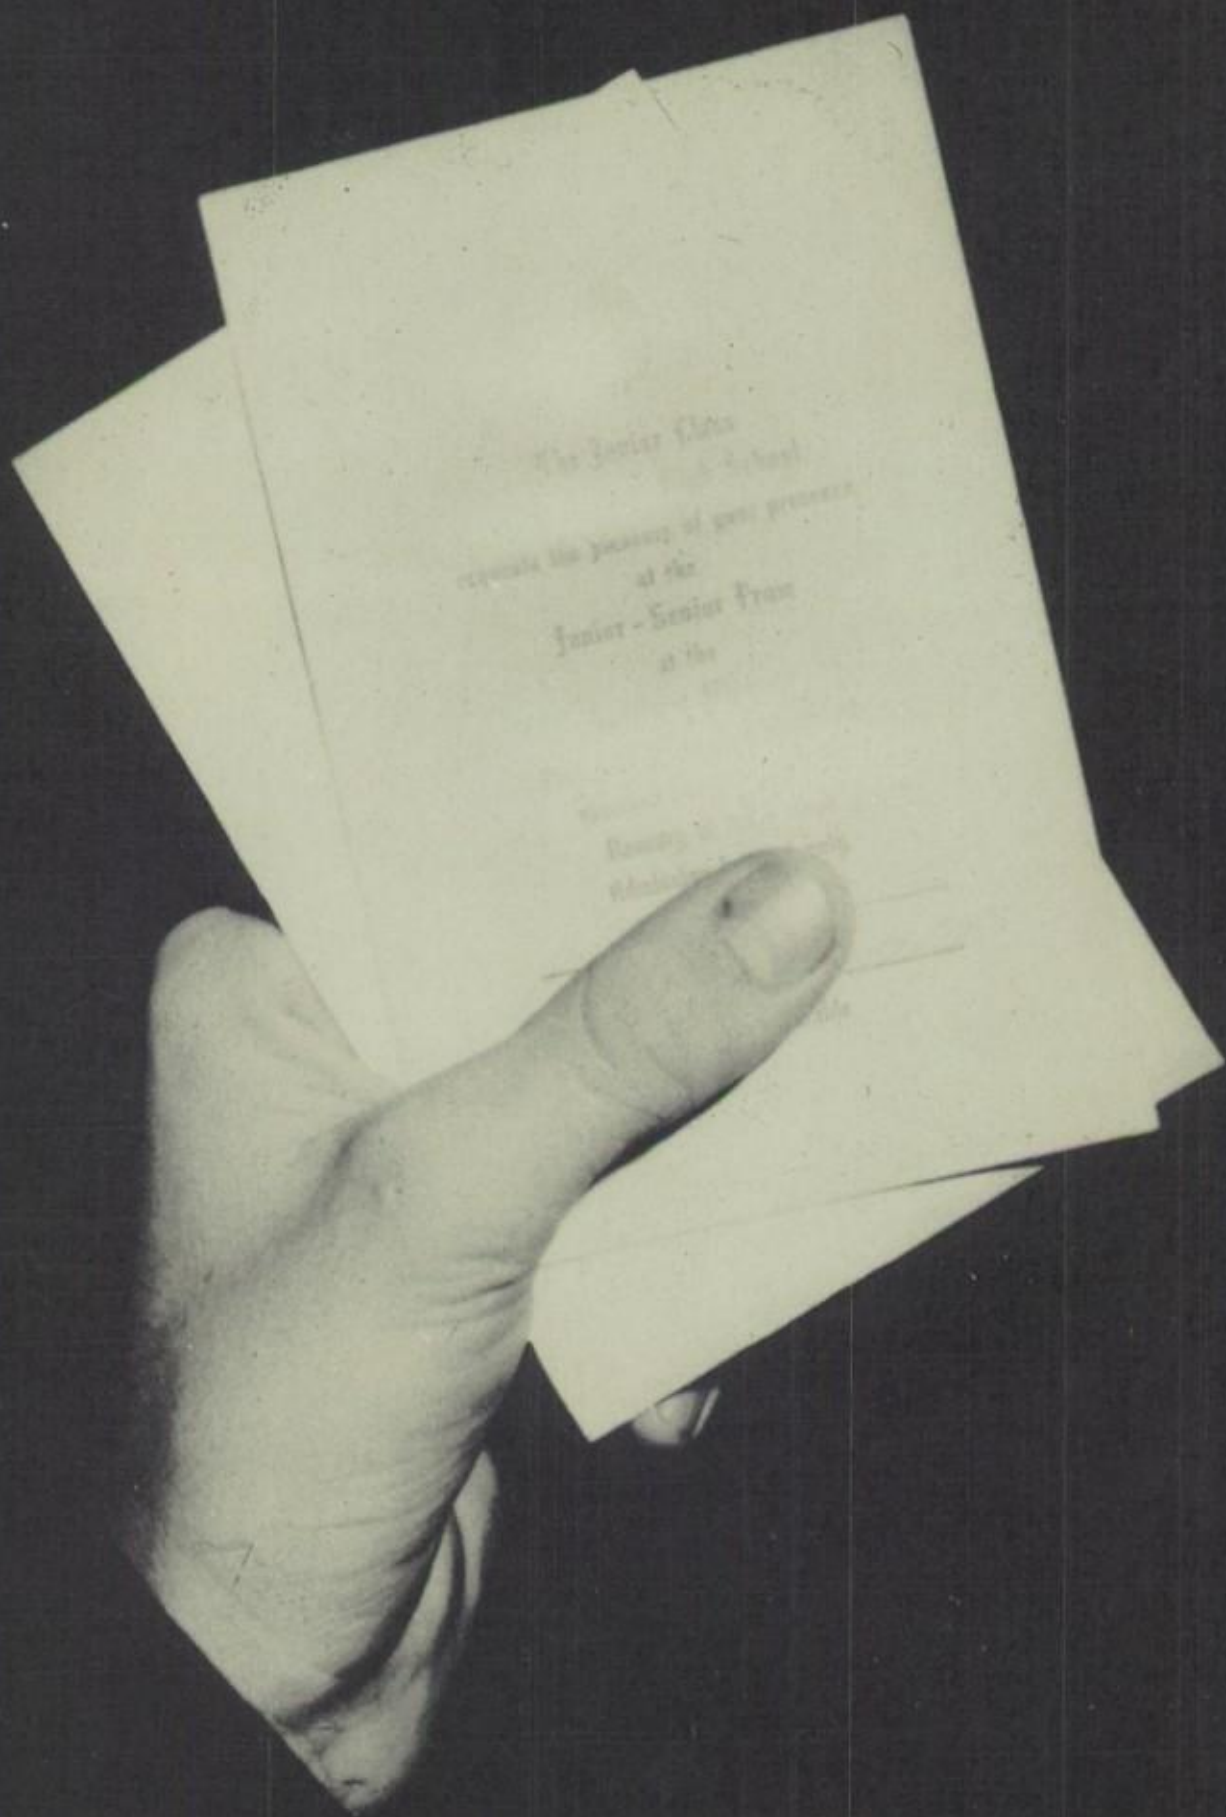

DORIS DANIEL, after such a wonderful career in H.H.S. was seen to be queen of the Blue Moon in Hubbard.

JAMES SPENCER was playing professional football for the Detroit Lions. Dear ole' Fudd! How we loved him.

He grinned when se saw SHIRLEY HASSELL, the smallest of our class, modeling elevated shoes.

MARIETTA BRUSTROM was the Home Economics teacher at H.H.S. In her spare time she was the outstanding star at Waco Hall.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of Hubbard High School, class of nineteen hundred and fifty-inree, being of sound mind (we hope) and strong body, do hereby leave our last will and testa- ment.

To the JUNIORS, whom we dearly love, we leave our abil- ity to get things done in the right manner.

To the SOPHOMORES, We leave our ability to raise nine kinds.

To the FRESHMAN, we leave our sympathy because they have so many years of torture left.

Then to RAY ADKINS, GARRY BOWMAN leaves his pedestal for him to stand on and look down upon the world. Also to GLENDA SAWYER he leaves some xxx liniment to soothe her many aches and pains she recieved in playing basketball.

To JAMES HAROLD HORN, W. D. BROWN leaves his way with the country girls.

GERALD GREENHILL, in his last will, leaves to JAMES LUCAS his quiet man- ner and his ability to get along with the teachers.

To W. J. CRAIN, CARROL KILLOUGH leaves his curly, black hair in hopes he, too, will become president of a dignified senior class.

BARBARA KABNICK leaves to you, PAULINE ENGLISH, these bobby pins. We hope that your hair will always look as nice as Barbara's.

Because of ALVIE FULLERTON'S great athletic ability JAMES SPENCER leaves his position as center on the JAGUAR TEAM to him with hopes that ALVIE will make the All District Team.

ROBERT SCOTT wills his sole possession, his favorite sparking place, (wonder where), to JAN VARDEMAN and wishes him the best of luck.

To KAY SAMMONS, the luckest of all juniors, JANELLE SLEDGE leaves this blue ribbon in hopes that she too may have the honor of being the SNOW QUEEN.

ARNOLD (bless him) TAYLOR bestows upon BARRY BRICE his bashful ways, with best wishes, of making a hit with the Hubbard girls.

JESSE KING leaves to THOMAS WALKER his title as Wolf of H.H.S. with deepest regrets.

SHIRLEY HASSELL has finally consented to give PAULA ATCHINSON the boys of H.H.S., as only Shirley can do.

LAVERNE PASLAY leaves her popularity with the out-of-town boys to HELEN LAMBERT.

In order that ROSEMARY MOORE might realize her ambition to become a safe driver JIMMY MILLER willingly consents to leave his manual on safe driving to her.

Everybody knows that one of the most dignified Seniors is MARIETTA BRUSTOM, so that there may be at least one dignified person in the Senior Class of '54 she has consented to leave her dignity to KAY MOTLEY.

DORIS DANIEL leaves her sweet disposition to SHIRLEY DONNLEY and hopes that she may live up to it. To PEGGY LITTLEJOHN she leaves the art of "henpecking" her boy friends.

CHARLINE HILL, with deepest regrets, leaves to LUCY WOODALL her ability to go steady with the Air Force boys.

LARRY LAND wills to DOROTHY DOOL his bookkeeping books and hopes that DOT will please Mrs. Sims as well as Larry has.

JERRY SELBY, in his last will, leaves his pug nose to DEVETA MANESS in hopes that it will be as attractive on her as it is on Jerry.

SCOTTY MADDOX, leaves to NANCY MOSER half of his small fortune which he has made at Conn's Drug Store. He couldn't bear to part with any more of the money.

The last but not least of the Seniors, NICKY ARNOLD, leaves to ALBERT ENGLISH his calender so he may know which days to go to English and which days not to go to English.

GRIDIRON SEASON

HUBBARD 6

KERENS 25

The Kerens Bobcats scored first on a pass from the 15 yard line. The next touchdown was the result of a 20 yard run. Another score resulted from a Hubbard fumble. The Bobcats scored their other touchdown on a pass. Brown scored the only Hubbard touchdown on an end sweep.

ABBOTT 0

Neither team scored in the first half. In the second half, Hubbard came back to take the game. Brown made the first tally on a punt return. Fadal converted the point-after. Brown scored again and Walker scored in the third quarter. A pass from Brown to Land made the next score. Simmons made the next score and Walker made the final score.

HUBBARD 6

ITALY 7

Hubbard scored first on a pass from Simmons to Land. The Italy Gladiators scored and converted the point-after.

HUBBARD 0

STATE HOME 20

The Jaguars met the State Home Laddies on the local field and played on equal terms with them except on end runs and passing. The Jaguar line played outstanding ball throughout the game.

HUBBARD 6

DAWSON 12

The only Hubbard touchdown in this game came on a good run of 40 yards by Gerald Greenhill. Dawson scored both of their touchdowns on passes.

HUBBARD 37

FROST 6

Gerald Greenhill and Jerry Simmons made the first two touchdowns for Hubbard in the first quarter. A pass from Larry Land to Jesse King scored the third. In the second quarter Jerry Simmons made two touchdowns. Larry Land scored the final Hubbard touchdown. The Polar Bears scored in the third quarter.

HUBBARD 14

MILDRED 30

Brown and Greenhill scored the Hubbard touchdowns in this game. Johnny Fadal converted the point-after. Mildred alternated its air and land attack to rack up 30 points.

HUBBARD 0

BYNUM 12

The Jaguars played the best game of the 1952 season against the Bulldogs. Garry Bowman and James Spencer played outstanding ball in the line and Robert Scott, W.D. Brown, Gerald Greenhill, and Jerry Simmons were outstanding in the backfield.

HUBBARD 25

BLOOMING GROVE 14

The touchdowns were scored for Hubbard by Simmons, Brown, and Walker. Walker made two of the four touchdowns.

HUBBARD 0

WORTHAM 7

Wortham made the game's only score in the third quarter. The Jaguars were plagued by fumbles throughout the game and were unable to score.

SCENES FROM ONE ACT PLAY 1952

Darling, there's something
I wouldn't say to anyone but you.

Let's try to make up for that old mistake.

We're all alone now, darling.

Oh, she did that to flatter him.
